We Would See Jesus: The Mission Continues

WAYNE HOVE

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

At LCBI we are committed to nurturing the heart, mind and spirit. Our founder's established the framework for our mission through "We Would See Jesus". This simple and direct framework continues to guide our path as we develop young leaders and disciples grounded in faith, academic excellence, and service.

THE CROSS & CROWN IN THE ENTRANCE OF THE CLASSROOM BUILDING

Every student who walks through the doors of LCBI is a person created in the image of God. We cherish that creation and each day on our campus, we see evidence of God's work—in the joy of our students, the dedication of our faculty and staff, and the unwavering support of our community. In a world that is ever-changing, LCBI remains a place of stability, where Christ's righteousness for us is the foundation for all we do.

This year, we are especially thankful for the resilient support and unity shown across our school family. We are on the plus side financially, on the plus side for student enrolment and on the plus side for student engagement. We have not witnessed as many people on campus for graduation, music concert and musical for many years.

Whether in the classroom, on the field, in chapel, or through acts of service, our students are growing in character, wisdom, and faith. We are inspired by their courage to lead, their compassion for others, and their desire to follow Christ wholeheartedly.

The highlights from the recent Feasibility Study report indicate strong support to replace our Food Services building and gymnasium repairs. We will focus our energies on these components within our capital campaign. A broader report will follow given board approval in the fall.

As we look ahead, we do so with purpose and with your continued prayers, support, and involvement; we will keep strengthening this special place where lives are shaped by dedication and the Holy Spirit.

Thank you for being part of the LCBI family. May God make His face to shine upon you!

In Christ,

JENNIFER
RIDGEWELL

Armour Up: A Year of Strength and Faith at LCBI High School

Looking back on the 2024/25 school year, I am so thankful for the way our theme - Armour Up, inspired by Ephesians 6:10-18 - deeply shaped our journey together as a school community. In a world filled with uncertainty and challenge, LCBI students and staff were called to stand firm in faith, equipped with the full armour of God—truth, righteousness, peace, faith, salvation, and the Word of God. From Opening Day to final exams in June, the Armour Up theme reminded us that we are not alone in life's battles. Every chapel, every class, every game, every activity, and every conversation reinforced that we are called to live with courage, compassion, and faith in Christ.

Academically, our students engaged in new and exciting learning opportunities designed to build knowledge, confidence, and character. This past semester Grade 10 students experienced the new Financial Literacy 10 course which helped them develop the knowledge, skills and confidence to make responsible financial decisions in their futures. It is always inspiring to see how much our students grow and gain confidence in their academic abilities during their time at LCBI, under the guidance of our amazing staff. Students new to LCBI who may feel discouraged about their academics often find renewed encouragement and a sense of accomplishment and success. Meanwhile, academically gifted students discover new challenges and opportunities for learning and growth. As Mr. Rick Delaine, our senior ELA teacher, often says, at LCBI we're teaching students to "think about what you are thinking about".

END OF YEAR FINAL EXAMS

Spiritually, our Armour Up theme came alive through daily chapels, devotional times in the classroom, during our fall Leadership retreat at Elbow Bible Camp, in our impactful Faith and Life event led by Pastor Ronald Shumba and Prairie Worship Collective, and in our Christian Ethics classes. During these faith events students and staff were invited to reflect on what it means to carry God's armour into every part of their lives—in every word, action, and relationship.

PASTOR RONALD SHUMBA AT THE LEADERSHIP RETREAT

Beyond the classroom, our students thrived through leadership, service, and extracurricular opportunities. The Leadership Program continues to empower students to shape campus life through House Groups, Chapels, Take Out Wednesdays, and Thursday Night Activities. The five student-led sub-groups—Faith and Life, Health and Wellness, Service, Intramurals, and Arts and Drama—each made unique contributions to a vibrant and joyful community and demonstrated what it looks like to serve with the shoes of peace and the shield of faith. A highlight included the much-loved House Plays Night in April where the whole student body came together to put on a night of collaboration and laughter. The Leadership program curriculum that we cover every second Wednesday continues to give our students the tools needed to be competent and effective leaders at LCBI and beyond. This program has been a true blessing to our community, and it's incredibly rewarding to see its impact shine through the students as they confidently organize and lead events on campus - demonstrating their growth while also providing valuable support to the staff.

STUDENTS AT A THURSDAY NIGHT ACTIVITY

The Graduating Class of 2025 was celebrated on Mother's Day weekend, led by class presidents Matthew Nelson and Olivia Hefner, and Valedictorian Alyssa Follick. Their achievements in academics, athletics, leadership, and service reflected the armour of God in action. As they walked across the stage at graduation, they did so not just as students, but as young men and women prepared to step into the world clothed in Christ's strength. We are very proud of the impact they have had on LCBI with their outstanding leadership and mentorship and we look forward to seeing the future impact they will have on the larger community.

GETTING READY FOR GRADUATION COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

We finished off the year with four fantastic performances of Shrek the Musical that showcased the talent and heart among our students. Over half of the student body and many staff came together to create this amazing show that included musical depth, a live band, elaborate costumes, dance numbers, and amazing set design. It was the first time we performed our musical in the gym, with the addition of a stage extension, and it was definitely necessary to accommodate the large crowds that came out each night. The show was arguably one of the most elaborate and crowd-pleasing performances put on at LCBI. We are so thankful for the many staff, alumni, and community members that are willing to take on this huge endeavor with us.

EACH STUDENT IS A MEMBER OF THE LCBI FAMILY

With a full heart, I celebrate the many blessings of this past year. When we Armour Up in God's truth and love, we are ready to stand firm in our faith and serve as His light in the world. As we head into summer, I pause to give thanks—for answered prayers, for God's direction, and for the incredible students and staff who make LCBI such a special place. To our families and alumni - thank you for walking this journey with us. Here's to a year well-lived and a future filled with much hope.

SAMANTHA RIDGEWELL

At LCBI High School, the mission of Admissions and Recruitment goes far beyond brochures and tours—it's about sharing the heart of our community. Rooted in our motto, "We Would See Jesus," the admissions process is an invitation for students and families to experience more than just academics. It's a call to discover a place where faith, learning, and lasting friendships come together.

Inviting Students Into Something More

What makes LCBI stand out in today's educational landscape is the depth of the experience we offer. We are not just promoting strong academics or a beautiful campus—we are inviting students to become part of a Christ-centered community that sees and nurtures the whole person.

Recruitment at LCBI is deeply relational. Whether through open houses, school visits, phone calls, or social media outreach, our approach is personal and intentional. Every student is seen as an individual with gifts and potential, and we aim to walk alongside them as they discern their next steps.

Spend-A-Day: Experiencing Life at LCBI

One of the most impactful recruitment tools we offer is our Spend-A-Day program. When prospective students come to LCBI and experience a full school day—from chapel and classes to dorm life and extracurriculars—they begin to envision themselves here. Again and again, we hear the same words: "This feels like home."

These visits give students a chance to ask questions, connect with current students, and see firsthand the supportive and vibrant culture that defines LCBI.

This year we hosted three Spend-A-Days and an Open House. We had 62 prospective students join us for Spend-A-Days and 44 join us for Open House. Our current students do such an incredible job of hosting the prospective students, making them feel welcomed and right at home.

LCBI Summer Camps: First Glimpses of Life on Campus

Another key part of our recruitment strategy is our LCBI Summer Camps. These three-night camp experiences give younger students a fun and faith-filled introduction to LCBI before they ever consider high school. Through sports, music, games, chapel, and dorm-style living, campers get a taste of the community that makes LCBI so special.

This year we are running a Youth Day Camp from August 5-8th for grades three to six. Our Junior Overnight Camp is FULL with 110 campers and we are so excited! That camp runs August 20-23rd, followed by our Senior Overnight Camp on August 24-27th. Many of our current students were first introduced to the school through summer camp—and often say it was during those summer days that they first felt the unique sense of belonging here.

Encouraging Growth: Increased Enrollment for 2025–2026

We are thrilled to report a significant increase in enrollment for the 2025–2026 school year—a strong indicator that the message of LCBI is resonating with families across the province and beyond. With new students joining us from across Saskatchewan, Alberta, Ontario, British Columbia, Quebec, United States, Mexico, Brazil, Hong Kong, Nigeria, and Uganda, our classrooms and dorms are filling with fresh energy, curiosity, and faith. This growth reflects not only the hard work of our Admissions and Recruitment team but also the power of personal invitation, student ambassadors, and the testimony of alumni and church partners who believe in the life-changing experience LCBI offers.

As we prepare to welcome one of our largest incoming classes in recent years, we give thanks for the opportunity to expand our community and continue sharing God's love through education.

A Growing Reach

In the past year, we've expanded our recruitment efforts all across Canada, the United States and worldwide. With the help of our passionate students, alumni, and church partners, we are reaching more families who are seeking a school that prioritizes both academic growth and spiritual formation.

Last July we took a recruiting trip to Texas to participate in a National Youth Gathering. We have been actively going to Kinasao Bible Camp and Ranger Lake Bible Camp for the last few summers and have been a part of many Christian Youth Gatherings in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Our recruitment team is actively spreading the word about LCBI to more youth and their families.

Social media platforms such as Instagram, TikTok, and Facebook have also become essential in telling the LCBI story. Through student-led videos, campus highlights, and event recaps, we are giving prospective families a window into the heart of our school.

Armour Up: Our Theme of the Year

This year at LCBI, we've embraced the theme "Armour Up", drawn from Ephesians 6 and the image of the full armour of God. As we gathered in chapel, classrooms, and conversations, this theme became more than a slogan—it became a spiritual framework. Our focus was on equipping students and staff with the spiritual armour needed not just to survive but to thrive in their faith.

"PUT ON THE FULL ARMOUR OF GOD, SO THAT YOU CAN TAKE YOUR STAND AGAINST THE DEVIL'S SCHEMES." EPH. 6:11

We've emphasized that being "Armoured Up" is not a seasonal strategy, but a lifestyle. The breastplate of righteousness, the shield of faith, and the sword of the Spirit are not left behind at the end of a chapel service or once a challenge has passed. These are the enduring gifts and graces of God that continue with us in the daily discipleship journey. In our chapels, we explored how the armour is not just protection in hard times but empowerment in times of peace, shaping how we love, serve, and lead in the world.

DEVOTIONS AROUND THE CAMPFIRE

Students engaged in conversations and reflections around what it means to stand firm, not in their own strength, but in the strength of the Lord. Our worship, prayer, and weekly devotions have helped anchor this theme deep in our hearts. "Armour Up" is not about a posture of fear, but a readiness to participate in God's mission with confidence, humility, and purpose.

PRAIRIE WORSHIP COLLECTIVE LED THE MUSIC DURING OUR FAITH & LIFE EVENT

Cross & Crown Discipleship

While the saying goes, “It takes a village to raise a child,” at LCBI, we’ve learned and lived a deeper truth: It takes the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit to empower a village to raise disciples. It’s not the size or strength of the village that matters—it’s the presence of the Triune God within it.

This past year, our chapels, classroom devotions, and staff gatherings reflected on how Christian discipleship is sustained not just through human effort or good intentions, but by the living power of God. Whether through student-led prayers, shared testimonies, or quiet conversations of faith, we’ve witnessed how God moves in the hearts of our community members—calling, convicting, and comforting.

STUDENTS RECEIVING PRAYER DURING OUR FAITH & LIFE EVENT

The ministry of Jesus is not a historical relic—it is a present and active reality. As Paul reminds us in 2 Corinthians 12:10, “When I am weak, then I am strong.” This truth has become a guiding light for us at LCBI.

Our ministry this year was not built on charisma, performance, or certainty—but on dependence, vulnerability, and openness to the Spirit’s work. In moments of weakness, students have found unexpected strength. In personal struggles, we’ve seen growth. In the midst of questions, deeper faith has emerged. It is here, in our humanity and brokenness, that the ministry of Jesus takes root.

LCBI continues to be a place where young people are not only educated but disciplined. Where the gospel is not only preached, but lived. Where God’s grace transforms not just minds, but hearts.

We remain grateful to walk with our students as they are “Armoured Up”, Spirit-empowered, and invited into the ongoing ministry of Christ. The journey of faith at LCBI is not a solo endeavor—it is a community calling, fueled by the Triune God, and grounded in the transforming love of Jesus. This is Cross and Crown Discipleship!

LCBI FEB. 15-25
ON MISSION

LCBI Students Bring Christ to the World Serving at Cristo Por Su Mundo in Mexico

Over the February break the LCBI 2025 Mexico Mission Team travelled to Vicente Guerrero along the Baja to spend time with some amazing people. Working with Foundation For His Ministry, our team spent time connecting with the kids in the children's home.

Many special connections were made and a number of our team have chosen to sponsor a child! They played lots of sports, made sidewalk chalk drawings, played games, blew bubbles, sang around the campfire and enjoyed lots of laughter. They were able to connect with men at the Foundation's rehab centre and halfway house, enjoying some fun rivalry on the basketball court and soccer pitch, hearing testimonies and sharing pizza. And they assisted the mission staff with a wide variety of tasks such as harvesting in the orchard, assisting in house renovations, working in the kitchen and doing yard maintenance.

And at the end of each day the team reflected on what they saw God doing, what they were hearing about and from God and sharing how they were able to serve God that day. The team returned with a renewed spirit of service for people near and far. And like the Mission's motto states - they will never be the same!

Upon returning from this amazing experience, the Mexico Mission Team shared some of their experiences with the student body in Chapel. Grade 12 student Jada Ingell said, "Being in Mexico opened my eyes to the real world; showing me just how much we have and how little others do. We experienced God's love, God's promise, and God's compassion in everything we did. I truly wish there was a way that everybody could experience what I was fortunate enough to experience, as it truly was life-changing". The team appreciated every individual, group and organization that supported them and made this amazing experience possible.

Rising to the Moment: A Year of Growth, Glory, and Bison Pride

LEAH

The 2024–2025 school year has been one of continued growth and success for LCBI Athletics. From unforgettable moments under the lights to championship banners on the gym wall, our athletes have continued to rise to the occasion, glorifying God through their efforts and representing the maroon and gold with pride.

One of the most memorable weekends this year was Homecoming, where we hosted an electric Friday Night Lights football game. It was a powerful experience to see our students compete on their home field with the crowd cheering under the glow of the lights. It wasn't just a game—it was a celebration of school spirit, tradition, and community.

LAST GAME OF THE SEASON - UNDER THE LIGHTS

Just weeks later, we had the honour of hosting the Senior Girls Provincial Volleyball Championship. Welcoming teams from across the province, we showcased not only our athletic excellence but our commitment to hospitality, sportsmanship, and community. These kinds of events elevate everyone involved—players, coaches, volunteers, and fans alike.

This year, our athletes brought home four provincial banners, a testament to their hard work and perseverance:

- A Bronze Medal for our Boys Soccer Team
- A Gold Medal for Morgan Chabot and Team West Central in Golf
- A Bronze Medal for Nash Dolan in Intermediate Boys Shot Put
- A return to Hoopla for our Boys Basketball Team, where they claimed the Bronze Medal

Hoopla was undeniably the highlight of the year. The energy and passion from our fans—students, staff, and an incredible number of alumni—created an atmosphere that was noticed and praised by tournament organizers and other schools alike. Our presence wasn't just loud—it was positive, uplifting, and deeply rooted in the values that set LCBI apart. It reminded us that excellence isn't only measured in points on a scoreboard, but in how we show up for each other and for the glory of God.

What we've seen time and time again is that big moments bring out the best in our students. Whether it's a gold medal swing, a game-saving block, or cheering from the stands, these events draw out courage, character, and community. They give our students a platform to grow, lead, and shine—not just as athletes, but as people of faith.

STUDENTS, FAMILY & ALUMNI CHEERING FOR THE BISONS AT HOOPLA

We are also incredibly thankful for the alumni and supporters who continue to show up in big and small ways. Whether it's cheering from the bleachers, donating to our programs, or sharing wisdom from their own LCBI days, the Bison family continues to be a living, breathing part of everything we do. That support strengthens our school and inspires our athletes to keep striving for excellence.

As we look ahead, we do so with excitement and gratitude—grateful for what God has done this past year and eager for what He will do in the future. LCBI Athletics is about so much more than competition. It's about creating meaningful experiences, building lifelong character, and pointing all our success back to the One who makes it possible.

Making Memories That Last a Lifetime

The 2024-2025 school year at LCBI was an amazing year! Exceptional in many ways. With an outstanding group of Grade 12 students the tone and leadership were set to make this a year with high levels of student engagement, respect, creativity, responsibility and piles of fun.

Event after event was held with great turn outs from the students week after week. From Thursday night House Group led events, to weekend campus life activities, to banquets, service opportunities, appreciation nights, LIFT Groups, spirit weeks, youth conferences and weekend trips. Friendships that last a lifetime are forged in the flurry of activity that happens on and off campus here at LCBI.

Valedictory Address

ALYSSA
FOLLIICK

Good afternoon and welcome, family, friends, staff, and fellow graduates. Thank you for joining us this weekend to celebrate the class of 2025. Thank you to our parents and families for raising us to be the people we are today. Your love, encouragement and sacrifice have helped us through life's ups and downs. Thanks for driving us to activities, helping us with school and continuously supporting us. Also, Happy Mother's Day to all the moms. Secondly, thank you to the teachers for not only teaching us valuable lessons and preparing us for our futures, but also dealing with us and putting up with our pranks. You have put in countless hours of your own time for our benefit. Also, thank you to the staff for all you do for us and to everyone else who helped and supported us along the way. Finally, thank you to my class, I am grateful for how close we have become and how well we work together, especially with how smoothly grad planning has gone.

Over the years, we have gone through a journey of many obstacles, but have also experienced many accomplishments. We have navigated the COVID pandemic, stressed about upcoming exams, and dealt with life's challenges. However, we have also enjoyed many successes in sports, music and drama. From these experiences, we have learned and grown, shaping us into the people we are today. The welcoming and family-like environment of LCBI makes our time in high school unforgettable and unlike other schools.

Whether we have been together since grade 9 or have only been together for one year, the friendships and memories we have made will not be forgotten. One memory that Daylan asked me to share was a prank done on Ridgey in physical science class in grade 11. In that class, she was using acids for a lab. Coincidentally, earlier that day, Daylan and Olivia thought it would be funny if they put tape on all the faucets. Ridgey is always careful with labs, but this happened to be the one time she spilled some on her hands when she was pouring it. She then went to turn on the sink, and water sprayed everywhere. Needless to say, she was not happy with whoever did it, but now, a year later, she is finally finding out.

Now, as we graduate and enter this new chapter of our lives, we will each be heading off on different paths. This will come with many challenges and opportunities. During these times of uncertainty, we must hold onto the message in our class verse. "The path of the righteous is like the morning sun, shining ever brighter till the full light of day" (Proverbs 4:18). This verse reminds us to trust in and follow the path God has planned for us. We can do as the verse says and shine ever brighter by continuously leading by example and growing in our faith. The path ahead may not be clear, easy or obvious, but following God's word will provide us with comfort and purpose.

As we leave this school, the connections and friendships we have made will never leave us. I am grateful to be a part of our class and am honoured to represent you here today. Thank you for positively impacting the last 4 years of my life. I wish you all success and happiness, and I look forward to reconnecting in the years to come. Thank you!

LCBI Music: Year End Reflections

GRAHAM CODLING

It has been a busy and rewarding year for the music department at LCBI. We began the year preparing for Homecoming, Remembrance Day, and our Christmas concert.

THE CONCERT CHOIR AT THE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Since Christmas we have had the opportunity to do two wonderful collaborations with other choirs. In March we sang at the ChorFest choir festival in Regina and then put on a concert with Luther High School. It was really fun to see how well the two choirs interacted and singing together with over 75 students was a great experience. Our second collaboration was in April at Choralations in Saskatoon. Here four choirs came together and put on a concert where each choir sang on their own and then we all came together for four songs. Over 200 young people all singing together was powerful!

CHORALATIONS IN SASKATOON

The concert choir, chamber choir, jazz band, and bell choir all competed in the music festival. The Concert choir scored well enough to send in a recording for the provincial level of the music festival. The entire music department went on tour to southern Alberta performing at various churches in Calgary, Lethbridge, and Medicine Hat. Then recently the chamber choir went on a weekend tour singing in Saskatoon and Shellbrook.

THE JAZZ BAND PERFORMS DURING THE SPRING TOUR

Wrapping up the year the concert choir, chamber choir, and jazz band put on a Spring concert that was very well received and appreciated. The year ended with a focus on our musical "Shrek". I am encouraged by the growth in the concert choir and jazz band this year and thankful for the great memories we have made performing together and spreading the joy of music.

Thank You Alumni!

We have had another wonderful and successful year here at LCBI. In addition to our successes on the court, in the choir, and the absolutely wonderful Shrek musical that we just finished putting on, we have also had a successful year financially.

Student counts continue to rise so thank-you alumni for continuing to send your kids to LCBI. Thanks also to those who do not have a family history with LCBI but have entrusted your kids to us. Donations were up significantly this year so thank-you to Alumni for your financial support as well. The school could not continue without your support. Thank-you to anyone and everyone who donated to LCBI this past year. Whether you donated once or whether you donated on a regular monthly basis, every donation helps and is appreciated.

Part of our financial success this year has been due to a large estate payment. Have you considered leaving a gift to the school as part of your will? Estate gifts of any size are always an absolute blessing to the school.

Your generosity allowed us to take on several projects this year in and around the school. The list of projects includes

- School bathroom renovation to expand capacity and provide accessibility
- Gym curtain to allow for multiple uses concurrently
- New commercial dishwasher in the cafeteria
- New zero turn mower for maintenance
- Replace the roof of Old Main (happening this summer)

Without your support, we might have been able to take on one of those projects within our budget. But because of your generosity, we were able to complete all 5 of these projects in the last year! It was amazing! So thank-you!

NEW ZERO TURN MOWER
THANK YOU WESTERN SALES

Building Campaign

And there are always more projects to do - from renovating more bathrooms to renovating more floors in the dorms. But the next project that we have our sights set on is the biggest project that we will have undertaken in decades - building a new cafeteria and, if possible, an athletic facility to support our athletic programs. While we have recently been upgrading the equipment within the cafeteria, our cafeteria building itself was moved in after the Second World War. It has served us well but the building is old, worn out, and in need of replacement. And we need your help to make it happen. If you believe that you can help with this project in any way, please let us know.
